Previous Bell Lectures

Anita L. Allen (2012); Henry R. Silverman Professor of Law and Professor of Philosophy, University of Pennsylvania Law School; "Privacy Law and Social Change."

Kent Greenawalt (2011); University Professor; Columbia Law School; "Religious Convictions and Political Judgments: Are They a Misfit?"

Akhil Reed Amar (2010); Sterling Professor of Law; Yale Law School; "Ohio and the Constitution"

Heidi M. Hurd (2009); David C. Baum Professor of Law and Professor of Philosophy and Co-Director, Program in Law and Philosophy; University of Illinois College of Law; "The Morality of Mercy"

Andrew Altman (2008); Professor of Philosophy at Georgia State University; Co-Director of Jean Beer Blumenfeld Center for Ethics; "Freedom of Expression as a Human Right: The Case of Holocaust Denial"

David Luban (2007); Georgetown University Law Center; "Torture and the Professions"

Mark A. Godsey (2006); University of Cincinnati, College of Law; "Wrongful Convictions and the Innocence Revolution"

Peter Irons (2005); University of California, San Diego; "The Faces Behind the Cases"

Michael J. Klarman (2004); University of Virginia, School of Law; "Why Brown v. Board of Education was a Hard Case"

David Cole (2003); Georgetown University Law Center; "Enemy Aliens: Immigrants' Rights and American Freedoms in the War on Terrorism"

Mark Curriden (2002); The Dallas Morning News; "Contempt of Court"

Michael Kent Curtis (2001); Wake-Forest University School of Law; "A New Birth of Freedom: the Crusade Against Slavery and the Nationalization of Free Speech"

Robin West (2000); Georgetown University Law Center; "Revitalizing Rights: A Response to the Rights Critique of the 1970s and 1980s"

James Boyd White (1999); The University of Michigan; "Reading and Writing in Philosophy, Law, and Literature"

Judge Samuel H. Bell (1998); Federal Judge, United States District Court Northern District of Ohio; "The Path of the Law"