THE COLLEGE OF WOOSTER

SUMMER HOUSING AGREEMENT
THE COLLEGE OF WOOSTER
Summer 2013

This agreement is only valid for:

1. Current College of Wooster students continuing their education at The College of Wooster in the Fall Semester 2013 (graduating seniors in the Class of 2013 will be given consideration for summer housing if, and only if, space is available after housing all continuing students);
2. Students approved to conduct research with a faculty member of the College of Wooster; and/or
3. Any individuals approved by the Office of Residence Life.

The Agreement may be terminated by the College if the student's account is not paid in full. It is the student's responsibility to notify Residence Life of any change in status between May 10, 2013 and August 24, 2013 which would affect this agreement. This agreement shall be in effect for the dates indicated on the individual student's Summer Housing Application. Summer Housing Rates are $10 per night for Summer Residents with a domestic address residing in a double, $7 per night for Summer Residents with an international address residing in a double, $13 per night for ALL Summer Residents residing in a single, and $15 per night for ALL Summer Residents residing in a College house.

I. CAMPUS HOUSING

The College reserves the right to:

1. Remove students from College housing when circumstances warrant such action. Students removed from College housing must exit the building immediately unless otherwise stated.
2. Relocate students within College housing when circumstances warrant such action.
3. Enter student rooms at anytime, with or without notice, for the purposes of inspection, maintenance, repairs, and investigation of suspected violations of College rules or regulations and/or suspected violations of law.
4. Assess individuals or members of a residential unit or corridor and/or their guests for damage to public areas.

The Student acknowledges the following:

1. By signing the Agreement a student reconfirms his/her responsibility to abide by the College Code of Social Responsibility and College Residence Life policies as outlined in The Scot's Key, and on the Residence Life website (http://www.wooster.edu/Student-Life/Residence-Life). Failure to comply with these expectations could result in termination of this agreement by the College, and the student will be held in breach of contract.
2. It is the student's responsibility to secure permission from Residence Life in order to arrive early or depart later than stated dates of the Agreement or to remain in designated residential facilities during break periods. If approved, these options may be an additional cost to the student.
3. It is the student's responsibility at the end of the occupancy period to remove all personal possessions and leave room in a clean, orderly state. All College-owned property that is in the room at the start of the occupancy period must be in the room at the end of the occupancy period. Students accept responsibility for any damages to the room or its furnishings during the occupancy period. Students must arrange a time to complete the check out process with a Residence Life staff member. If process is not completed, an inspection will be made and it will be noted that occupant was not present. The student waives the right to contest any improper check out fees assessed.

4. The student understands and agrees that the College is not responsible for loss or damage to clothing and personal effects and property in College residence halls and houses. The College does not provide storage spaces for students' personal belongings in residence halls or houses during breaks in residency.
5. A student occupying a room with a vacancy agrees to accept a new occupant at any time.
6. For reasons of security, each student living in College housing is responsible for his/her assigned room and/or house key and swipe card. If this key or card is lost or stolen, students are expected to report such loss to the Office of Security immediately and replace the key/card.
7. Students may not perform Room Changes without prior written approval from Residence Life Office.
8. In the event of a campus emergency, which requires the relocation of students into alternative housing, all students in campus residence shall have the obligation to make space available within their assigned housing for occupancy by other students.
9. Meal plans are not required or offered during the summer months. All summer students should check schedules posted in Mom's or in Lowry Center to see when any services may be available.

TERMINATION PROVISIONS

Students who desire to terminate the Campus Summer Housing Agreement, in part or in whole, during summer housing must obtain written permission from the Dean of Students' Office. Permission will be granted pending approval of written documentation explaining why such a change is necessary.

In addition to the conditions stated in this agreement, students are responsible for knowing all polices and procedures outlined in the current edition of The College of Wooster Catalogue and The Scot's Key, as well as the Residence Life website.
