

Graduation requirements 5: Quantitative Reasoning

Through this requirement students will understand how quantitative methods are used to model real-world situations.

Educational Goal

Learning objectives

Assessment Tools

understand the varied ways in which mathematics is used in real-world problem solving;

understand the different quantitative methods of representing and analyzing data develop an appreciation for both the power of quantitative reasoning and the limitations of various quantitative methods.