

---

THE COLLEGE OF
WOOSTER

---

THE LILLY PROJECT FOR THE EXPLORATION OF VOCATION
Contemplation ∞ Commitment

Seventh Meeting of the Steering Committee
18 January 2005
Lilly House Reading Room

Update on the Project: Programs & Activities

Welcoming Home

- Richard Bell and Stephanie Small; Alaina Martinez is our guest today

Steering Committee Discussion

- President Stan Hales on our College in its religious and historical landscape

PTEV News

- Conflict Transformation Institute hosted by Manchester College's Lilly Project ("Plowshares"): Dianna will attend with a small team of faculty members
- PTEV Plenary Conference: this October: Carolyn Buxton, Madeline Duntley, and Dianna attended
- Macalester Six-College Writing Project Life Work curriculum (Dianna is a co-author), is in final draft form; the team meets in LA in March
- Linda Morgan-Clement is creating a mini-grant proposal involving PC(USA) PTEV colleges and PC(USA) seminaries
- Earlham Lilly Project "Plowshares" (with Goshen and Manchester) conference was in October: Chuck Kammer coordinated a group of students who attended this Peacemaking and Social Justice event
- Sharing the questions posed by Kim Maphis Early, coordinator of the PTEV programs

College of Wooster News

- Tom Tierney: Medical Humanitarian Internship
- Lisa Kastor: Legal Humanitarian Internship
- Richard Bell: Seminary Semester
- Carolyn Buxton: Lilly Plenary Conference
- K.P. Hong: Worthy Questions kick-off retreat; ReIntegration
- Susan Hawkins-Wilding: Azimuth; Civic Engagement
- Chuck Kammer: Finding Renewal/Sabbath
- Dianna: Mini-Grants 2004 and 2005; Office of International Student Affairs "Language of Leadership" Retreat February 2005; Alumni Retreat to be co-facilitated with Linda Morgan-Clement and Sandy Eyre December 2005; Development developments

Respectfully Submitted,
Dianna R. Kardulias, Director