

My life at the FEDERAL RESERVE

Sandra Pianalto

President,
Federal Reserve
Bank of Cleveland

Wednesday,
February 26, 2014
7:30 pm

Wilson Governance Room,
Scot Center,
lower level

Known mostly for its role in monetary policy, the Federal Reserve is also a complex organization that interacts at many levels with a variety of regional and national audiences. Ms. Pianalto reflects on her thirty years at the Cleveland Federal Reserve bank and what it takes to manage regional, national, and organizational goals effectively.

THE COLLEGE OF WOOSTER

Independent Minds, Working Together

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

James R. Wilson Lecture Series

The James R. Wilson Lecture Series brings distinguished business and financial leaders to The College of Wooster to share their insights and to interact with the campus community.