SOPHOMORE RESEARCH, FALL 2018

Researcher: Pam Frese

Discipline: Anthropology

Weekly Time Commitment: 5 hours/week

General Area of Research: Performance anthropology, bio on sociologist

Project Description: The successful student will learn how to search for relevant scholarship on performance anthropology, with a focus on ethnographic performance as a pedagogical tool. In addition, I need to finish a biography on an important sociologist and the student will research scholarship on that individual over the last 20 years. I also have interview recordings that need transcription.

Related majors: Sociology, History, Theatre, English

Skills and Classes Required: Organized and accurate written work. An interest in learning advanced search techniques for researching appropriate scholarship. Other skills will be learned.

Applications due September 14, 2018.