Sept 4  Academic Etiquette: Hey there, Professor!
In this interactive session, learn how to communicate effectively with your professors both inside and outside of the classroom. Written, verbal and behavioral etiquette will be discussed.

Sept 11  Hacking the Writing Process
Writing Center Director, Alicia Brazeau, and consultants provide writing tips based on upperclassmen’s previous experiences and mistakes.

Sept 18  It’s about Time! A Quick Workshop on Effective Time Management!
Learn insights and techniques that will help you take charge of your weekly schedule and make the most of your time.

Sept 25  Techniques for Reading, Writing and Studying
Develop strategies designed to help you navigate your way through the volume and difficulty of reading assignments, note taking and effective group study techniques.

Oct 2  Planning for Off-Campus Study
Do you want to make off-campus study a core component of your education? Professional Staff and Global Envoys will walk you through the rich menu of offerings.

Oct 16  What are your Strengths?
Building on the introduction to Strengths Quest in ARCH, you will take a deeper dive into understanding and leveraging your strengths in college. Bring a laptop or smart device.

Oct 23  Preparing for Pre-Registration Advising Appointments
Ready to talk to your advisor about classes and activities for Spring 2019? Come learn helpful tools and strategies so you are well-prepared for your advising appointment.

Nov 6  Experiential Learning & On-Campus Research
On-campus research, internships, and other experiential learning opportunities are a great way to explore your interests. Come find out about spring semester and summer opportunities.

Nov 13  Building a Powerful Résumé
First Year students need a polished resume to apply to many on-campus and summer opportunities. Join this interactive session with Career Planning staff to get started on yours.